

The use of the software or software as a service product (Software) and supplied documentation in respect of the Software (Material) which is licensed to you by the licensor described in clause 14 below (Licensor) is governed by the licence terms and conditions set out below (“this Agreement”). Without limiting the ways in which you may be bound by this Agreement, by clicking “I accept the terms of this Licence Agreement” (or similar wording) or using a similar mechanism indicating your acceptance, by signing a document in which you expressly agree to be bound by this Agreement (including a Software Purchase Agreement as described below), or by otherwise installing and/or using the Software, you (the “Customer”) will be deemed to have accepted and will be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the basis on which the Licensor makes the Software available to the Customer and on which the Customer may use the Software. Any contact details or personal information provided by the Customer will be used and managed by the Licensor in accordance with the Licensor’s Privacy Policy, or by a Data Protection Agreement entered into by the Licensor (as applicable). A copy of the DPA is located at LiveTiles DPA. By installing or using the Software, the Customer agrees to accept and to be bound by (1) this Agreement; and (2) the Privacy Policy. If the Customer does not agree with either of these, then please do not install or use the Software.

1 LICENCE CONDITIONS

- 1.1 Subject to the Customer’s compliance with this Agreement, the Licensor grants to the Customer, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable licence (Licence) to:
- (a) access and use the Software online via a website specified from time to time by the Licensor (but only where such functionality is provided);
 - (b) use any app version of the Software which the Licensor publishes from time to time in an online app store;
 - (c) have the Software installed on the Customer’s designated on-premises server, own cloud infrastructure or an Authorised User’s computer (but only where the relevant Software Purchase Agreement provides for such installation and use); and
 - (d) have the Software used by the Customer’s Authorised Users (as described below).
- 1.2 The term of the Licence will, subject to clause 4, be one of the following:
- (a) limited to a specific period of time, which may or may not be capable of renewal (Subscription Licence); or
 - (b) limited to an evaluation term (Evaluation Licence). An Evaluation Licence may also be granted in relation to alpha or beta versions of the Software for the purposes of testing the Software by the Customer. An Evaluation Licence will terminate at the conclusion of the applicable evaluation term and may be limited to certain functionality or have other limitations imposed by the Licensor; or
 - (c) commence on the date specified in clause 1.3 and continue in perpetuity (Perpetual Licence).
- 1.3 The term of the Licence will begin at the earlier of (a) the date specified in the Software Purchase Agreement; or (b) the Customer’s first installation or use of the Software.
- 1.4 The Licence will be granted directly to the Customer either by the Licensor, or by an authorised reseller of the Licensor (Reseller). This Agreement sets out the Customer’s usage rights in relation to the Software and forms a direct contractual relationship between the Customer and the Licensor.
- 1.5 If you are a Reseller then you may use the Software for demonstration purposes only and for the purposes of supporting your Customers (Partner Licence). In this case you will, subject to the following, have the same rights and obligations as if you were a Customer who has an Evaluation Licence (and a reference to the Customer will include a reference to you as a Reseller). The Licensor however may impose further restrictions on your use of the Software in any separate agreement between you and the Licensor (which will take precedence over this Agreement).

- 1.6 The Customer may not license, sublicense, sell, resell, rent, lease, deliver, transfer, assign, distribute, time share, offer the Software or the Licence to any other person without the written permission of the Licensor.
- 1.7 This Agreement does not grant the Customer the right to use or access the source code for the Software.
- 1.8 The Customer must not directly or indirectly attempt to gain unauthorised access to the Software or its related systems or networks.
- 1.9 Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Licensor, the Customer may only use and access the Software via the permitted uses described in clause 1.1. The Customer must not install or use the Software in any other way.
- 1.10 An Evaluation Licence is limited to evaluating the Software to determine whether to purchase a Subscription Licence. The Customer may not use the Evaluation Licence for any other purposes, including without limitation for any competitive analysis, commercial, professional, or for-profit purposes. The Licensor has the right to terminate the Evaluation Licence at any time.
- 1.11 All rights in and to the Software which are not expressly granted under this Agreement are strictly reserved by the Licensor.

2 SOFTWARE PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

- 2.1 The type of Licence (being either an Evaluation Licence, Perpetual Licence or Subscription Licence) which the Customer is granted will be separately agreed between the Customer and the Licensor, or the Customer and the Licensor's authorised reseller (as applicable) (Software Purchase Agreement). Without limiting the foregoing, the Software Purchase Agreement may constitute a Master Services Agreement between the Licensor and the Customer, an order form pursuant to which the Customer purchases the Licence, or other consulting services agreement which references this Agreement.
- 2.2 The Software Purchase Agreement may also specify:
 - (a) restrictions on which individuals, or the number of individuals (as applicable) who may access and use the Software (Authorised Users). If such restrictions are specified, then apart from Authorised Users, no other person may use or access the Software. However if no such restrictions are specified, then the Customer's employees, individual consultants, and subcontractors who provide goods and services to the Customer, may use the Software, but solely for the purposes of the Customer's business or the provision of their goods and services to the Customer, but for no other purpose;
 - (b) any usage rights and/or usage limits in respect of the functionality of the Software (Usage Rights);
 - (c) the term of the Licence;
 - (d) how the Customer may access and use the Software (as described in clauses 1.1(a), 1.1(b) and 1.1(c));
 - (e) whether the Licence is an Evaluation Licence, Perpetual Licence or Subscription Licence;
 - (f) the provision of software support by the Licensor or its Reseller;
 - (g) the provision of other services by the Licensor or its Reseller (such as consulting, installation and maintenance); and

- (h) any other terms governing the Licence.
- 2.3 If there is any conflict between the Software Purchase Agreement entered into between the Customer and Licensor, and this Agreement, then
- (a) the Software Purchase Agreement applies to the extent of the conflict; and
 - (b) however clauses 4, 7, 8, 10 and 11 will prevail over any conflicting terms in the Software Purchase Agreement.

3 ACCOUNTS AND AUTHORISED USERS

- 3.1 Depending on the functionality of the Software, the Customer and some or all Authorised Users may be required to set up an individual user account (Account) to use and access the Software. The Licensor may, from time to time, amend or place restrictions on the requirements needed to create an Account.
- 3.2 If the Licence is an enterprise subscription for all users in the Customer's organization that can access the Software, then the number of Authorised Users is not the number of active users at any point in time, but all users in the organization. The Customer must then purchase sufficient licences in the Software Purchase Agreement to cover all users in the Customer's organization with an Office 365 or Microsoft 365 license, or for on-premise installations, all users with a SharePoint license, and for any other Third Party Services which the Software interfaces with from time to time.
- 3.3 The Customer shall be responsible for each use of the Software by its Authorised Users and each act, omission or negligence of an Authorised User in relation to its use of the Software, or this Agreement, shall be an act, omission or negligence of the Customer. The Customer indemnifies the Licensor against any and all loss, cost, expense or damage suffered or incurred by the Licensor, as a result of any and all uses of the Software by the Authorised Users, and from any breach of this Agreement caused by an Authorised User.
- 3.4 If a person has entered into this Agreement in its capacity as an Authorised User of the Customer then that person:
- (a) is bound by this Agreement in its capacity as an Authorised User but also binds the Customer as agent of the Customer;
 - (b) has all the rights and obligations under this Agreement which are imposed on the Customer (however it may only appoint other Authorised Users of the Software who are Authorised Users of the Customer); and
 - (c) is bound under this Agreement as if named as the Customer.
- 3.5 The Customer agrees:
- (a) that each Account (whether the Customer's or each Authorised User's) will be created using the Licensor's or applicable Reseller's online sign up process, or any other method specified by the Licensor from time to time;
 - (b) to keep confidential and secure, and to ensure that each Authorised User keeps confidential and secure, any username or password used to access the Account;
 - (c) to be responsible for all uses of the Customer's Account by its employees or agents, and for each Authorised User's use of their Account;
 - (d) that it warrants that all information provided by the Customer to the Licensor in the setup of its and each Authorised User's Account is true and correct in every detail;
 - (e) that the Customer, and each Authorised User, will only use their Account for the purposes of using the Software in accordance with this Agreement, and for no other purpose; and
 - (f) that the Customer and each Authorised User will:

- (i) only use the Software in accordance with the permitted uses and functionality described in its user manuals (or similar documentation) from time to time; and
- (ii) not use their Account in a fraudulent or illegal manner, or email, upload or send any materials from their Account which are offensive, unlawful, harassing, libellous, defamatory, abusive, threatening, harmful, vulgar, obscene or otherwise objectionable.

3.6 Without limiting the Licensor's rights, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Licensor may suspend usage of the Customer's and/or an Authorised User's Account at any time in its sole and absolute discretion, if the Licensor considers that:

- (a) the Customer or an Authorised User is in breach of this Agreement; or
- (b) doing so is required for urgent maintenance of the Software.

4 TERMINATION

4.1 This Agreement and the Customer's rights under this Agreement may be terminated at any time by the Licensor:

- (a) where the Software Purchase Agreement permits such termination;
- (b) if the Customer, or any of its Authorised Users, is in breach of this Agreement, the Software Purchase Agreement or a Third Party Licence (as that term is defined in clause 11.1) and fails to remedy the breach after receiving 14 days written notice from the Licensor or its Reseller requiring the breach be remedied; or
- (c) the Customer becomes insolvent, bankrupt, is wound up, or has an administrator, liquidator or receiver appointed over it or its assets (including making any voluntary or involuntary filing in bankruptcy, reorganization, or receivership, or under similar laws for the protection of creditors, by or directed against the other party, which is not withdrawn within 30 days of such filing), or makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors.

4.2 If an Evaluation Licence is granted, then this Agreement and the Licence will automatically terminate at the end of the applicable evaluation period unless extended by written agreement with the Licensor, or converted to a Subscription Licence prior to the end of the evaluation period.

4.3 If a Subscription Licence is purchased, then this Agreement and the Licence will only terminate at the end of the applicable term of that Licence where the Customer has notified the Licensor in accordance with the terms of the Software Purchase Agreement that it does not wish to renew the Licence. Otherwise the Subscription Licence will automatically renew either for the same duration as the original Subscription Licence period, or for such other period as specified in the Software Purchase Agreement. The Customer will be required to pay an uplift amount on the renewal of the Subscription Licence either as specified in the Software Purchase Agreement or alternatively (if not specified in the Software Purchase Agreement), which will be equal to the prior subscription fee, increased by 7% (to compensate the Licensor for inflation together with increased features included in the Software over time), or such lesser amount determined by the Licensor in its discretion.

4.4 The Customer may terminate this Agreement in accordance with its applicable termination rights specified in the Software Purchase Agreement.

4.5 Upon the termination of this Agreement:

- (a) the Customer will cease using the Software and will ensure that all of its Authorised Users cease using the Software;

LIVETILES END USER LICENCE AGREEMENT (EULA)

- (b) the Licensor may delete all of the Customer's and its Authorised User's Accounts and remotely disable the Customer's and each Authorised User's access and use of the Software;
- (c) subject to the terms of the Software Purchase Agreement, the Licensor may delete all copies of the Customer's Data (as that term is defined below) stored by the Software without any notification to the Customer;
- (d) the Customer will delete or destroy, or where specified by the Licensor, return to the Licensor, any Material supplied by the Licensor;
- (e) the Customer will not be entitled to a refund of any prepaid Licence fees unless otherwise required by law; and
- (f) nothing herein shall be construed to release either party from any obligation that arose prior to the effective date of such termination.

4.6 Clauses 7, 8, 10, 11 and 15 of this Agreement will survive the termination of this Agreement.

5 UPDATES AND UPGRADES

- 5.1 The Licensor may from time to time provide enhancements or improvements to the features/functionality of the Software, which may include a new version, new release, patches, bug fixes, updates, upgrades and other modifications (each an "Upgrade").
- 5.2 If the Licensor releases an Upgrade, and provides access and use of the Upgrade to the Customer (whether pursuant to the terms of the Software Purchase Agreement or otherwise), then this Agreement will continue to apply to the Upgrade (as if the Upgrade were the "Software").
- 5.3 The Licensor reserves the right to modify, suspend or discontinue, temporarily or permanently, any functionality contained in the Software or any service to which it connects, with or without notice and without liability to the Customer.
- 5.4 Upgrades may modify or delete certain features and/or functionality of the Software. The Customer agrees that the Licensor has no obligation to:
 - (a) provide any Upgrades; or
 - (b) continue to provide or enable any particular features and/or functionality of the Software to Customers in any Upgrade. If the Customer has a specific customisation of the Software produced for them, the Licensor will only ensure the customisation continues to function in a similar manner after the Upgrade is applied where the Customer pays additional fees as advised by the Licensor.
- 5.5 If the Customer is granted a Perpetual Licence, then that Licence will apply to the then current version of the Software which was provided to the Customer. The Customer will have no right or entitlement to receive or use any Upgrades of the Software, unless the Customer has a valid support and maintenance plan in place, as purchased under the Software Purchase Agreement.

6 SUPPORT SERVICES AND HOSTING

6.1 Support entitlement

The Customer's entitlement to software support will be as set out in the Software Purchase Agreement and will be based on the Support Tiers located at LiveTiles Software Support from time to time.

6.2 Hosting

- (a) The Software Purchase Agreement may specify whether the Software is:

- (i) hosted on servers provided by a third party hosting provider to the Licensor (Hosting Services); or
 - (ii) installed locally at the Customer's premises or hosted on the Customer's own private cloud network (Local Installation).
- (b) Apart from where specified in the Software Purchase Agreement to the contrary:
- (i) the Licensor makes no representation, or provides any warranty, as to the performance or speed of the Hosting Services; and
 - (ii) if a Local Installation is used, then the Licensor has no liability or responsibility for any failure or defect in the Software caused by the Local Installation or the Customer's infrastructure. The only responsibility of the Licensor in this regard is to provide software support (based on the Customer's Support Tier) solely in respect of the Software.
- (c) The Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any failure of the Hosting Services or any error in the Hosting Services against the Licensor, is:
- (i) the applicable remedies (if any) expressly set out in a Software Purchase Agreement; and
 - (ii) to request the Licensor to liaise with the relevant third party hosting provider through the third party hosting provider's usual support services to rectify the relevant failure or error.
- (d) The Software Purchase Agreement may specify additional rights and obligations for the parties in relation to Hosting Services and any Local Installation.

7 LIMITATION AND IMPLIED TERMS

Schedule 1 sets out additional provisions which may impact the liability of the Licensor depending on the location of the Licensor.

8 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND CUSTOMER DATA

- 8.1 The Licensor retains ownership of the Software and Material and all present and future rights in copyright, moral rights, inventions (including patents), trademarks, designs, circuit layouts (whether or not registered or registrable) (together "Intellectual Property Rights") which subsist in the Software and Material at all times. Apart from the Licence granted herein, all such rights are reserved by the Licensor.
- 8.2 The Customer agrees that it will use the same degree of effort that it uses to protect its own proprietary information to maintain possession and confidentiality of the Software and Material, and to protect the copyrights, and all related technical information, data and materials supplied to the Customer by the Licensor.
- 8.3 Subject to the Customer's rights, if any, arising under applicable copyright legislation in the country where the Licensor is located, the Customer will not copy, reproduce, modify, disassemble or reverse engineer the Software in any way without receiving written permission from the Licensor to do so.
- 8.4 Subject to the Licensor's Intellectual Property Rights in the Software and the Material, the Customer shall retain all Intellectual Property Rights in any information or data which the Customer or its Authorised Users upload to or store in the Software (Customer Data). The Customer may access the Customer Data via functionality contained in the Software.
- 8.5 There is no obligation on the Licensor or its Resellers to backup Customer Data other than as provided by the then current functionality of the Software or as specified in a Software Purchase Agreement. The Customer acknowledges that it must maintain its own copy of the Customer Data and that the Licensor is not responsible for any loss of, or corruption to, the Customer Data.

9 INFRINGEMENT INDEMNIFICATION

- 9.1 In the event of any claim, suit, or proceeding brought against the Customer based on an allegation that the Software infringes upon any Intellectual Property Rights of a third party (Infringement Claim), the Licensor shall defend, or at its option, settle such Infringement Claim, and shall pay all costs (including attorney's fees) associated with the defence of such Infringement Claim, and all damages finally awarded or settlements undertaken by the Licensor in resolution of such Infringement Claim, provided the Customer:
- (a) promptly notifies the Licensor in writing of the notification or discovery of an Infringement Claim such that the Licensor is not prejudiced by any delay in such notification;
 - (b) gives the Licensor sole control over the defence or settlement of the Infringement Claim; and
 - (c) provides reasonable assistance in the defence of the same.
- 9.2 Following notice of an Infringement Claim, or if the Licensor believes such a claim is likely, the Licensor may at its sole expense and option:
- (a) procure for the Customer the right to continue to use the alleged infringing Software;
 - (b) replace or modify the Software or to make it non-infringing; or
 - (c) accept a return of the Software or provide the Customer with a refund equal to the last 12 months payment in the respect of the Licence, prior to the event.
- 9.3 The Licensor assumes no liability for any Infringement Claims or allegations of infringement based on:
- (a) the Customer's use of the Software in breach of this Agreement or in breach of the Software Purchase Agreement;
 - (b) the Customer's use of any Software after notice that the Customer should cease use of such Software due to an Infringement Claim;
 - (c) any modification of the Software by the Customer or at the Customer's direction; or
 - (d) the Customer's combination of the Software with non-Licensor software, services, data or other content or materials if such Infringement Claim would have been avoided by the use of the Software alone.
- 9.4 This clause 9 states the exclusive remedy with respect to any Infringement Claim.

10 EXPORT LAWS

- 10.1 The Licensor, its employees and its agents may be subject to export control laws of Australia, the United States or other jurisdictions that prohibit or restrict transactions with certain parties, and the type and level of technologies and services that may be exported (Export Laws). The Customer agrees to comply fully with all such laws and regulations of Australia, the United States and other countries to assure that neither the Software, nor any direct products thereof are exported, directly or indirectly, in violation of Export Laws, or are used for any purpose prohibited by Export Laws, including, without limitation, nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons proliferation.
- 10.2 The Software nor underlying information or technology may be downloaded or otherwise exported or re-exported into (or to a national or resident of) Cuba, North Korea, Iran, Sudan, Syria or any other country to which Australia or the United States has embargoed goods; or to anyone on the U.S. Treasury Department's List of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Commerce Department's Denied Persons List, Unverified List, Entity List, Non-proliferation

Sanctions or General Orders, or similar lists or orders in Australia or other jurisdictions. By using the Software, the Customer is agreeing to the foregoing and it is representing and warranting that it is not located in, under the control of, or a national or resident of any such country or on any such list, and that it acknowledges that it is responsible to obtain any necessary Australian or United States government authorisation to ensure compliance with such laws.

11 THIRD PARTY LICENCES AND SERVICES

- 11.1 The Software may incorporate components licensed to the Licensor by third parties, which may be subject to their own End User Licence Agreements (Third Party Licences).
- 11.2 The Customer agrees that the use of the Software, in addition to this Agreement, will be governed by any terms and conditions specified by any Third Party Licence that applies to the Software, including but not limited to those appended to this Agreement.
- 11.3 The Customer agrees to be bound by and observe all terms and conditions of any Third Party Licence and acknowledges that any breach of a Third Party Licence will entitle the Licensor to terminate the Licence and exercise its rights under clause 4.
- 11.4 The Software may display, include or make available third-party content (including data, information, applications and other products services) or provide links to third-party websites or services, or require integration with certain third party software (Third Party Services).
- 11.5 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Licensor shall not be responsible for any Third Party Services, including their functionality, defects, accuracy, completeness, timeliness, validity, copyright compliance, legality, decency, quality or any other aspect thereof. The Licensor does not assume and shall not have any liability or responsibility to you or any other person or entity for any Third Party Services.
- 11.6 Third Party Services and links thereto are provided solely as a convenience to the Customer and access and use of such Third Party Services and/or links are entirely at the Customer's own risk and subject to such third parties' terms and conditions.

12 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 12.1 Each party must not, and must use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that it and its officers, employees and advisers and others to whom it discloses the terms of this Agreement, do not:
- (a) disclose any Confidential Information;
 - (b) use any Confidential Information in any manner which may cause or be calculated to cause loss to the other party.

- (a) if it has the consent of the party disclosing such information to do so;
 - (b) if it is required to do so by law;
 - (c) if the Confidential Information has come within the public domain, other than by a breach of this clause 12 by any party;
 - (d) if the Confidential Information was in its possession or known by it without restriction prior to receipt from the party disclosing such information, as can be established by the party's contemporaneous records.
- 12.3 "Confidential Information" for the purposes of this clause means all information of a sensitive nature disclosed by either party, whether or not marked, including, without limitation, the terms of this Agreement, the Software, Materials and individual contact information provided by either party.

13 AMENDING THIS AGREEMENT

- 13.1 Subject to the terms of the Software Purchase Agreement, the Licensor may amend any of the terms of this Agreement by providing written notice to the Customer of such amendments and/or displaying such amendments or an amended copy of this Agreement to the Customer during its use of the Software. Without limiting the methods by which the Customer may accept such amended terms, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that its, or any of its Authorised Users ongoing use of the Software, after the Customer or any of its Authorised Users are made aware of any amended terms to this Agreement will constitute the Customer's acceptance of such amended terms.
- 13.2 If the Customer does not agree to any amendments made by the Licensor to the terms of this Agreement, then the Customer must immediately cease all use of the Software. If the Customer has pre-paid any Subscription Licence at the time it ceases such use then it should contact the Licensor to determine whether it is eligible for a refund of any unused proportion of the pre-paid Subscription Licence.
